

RAILWAY ENGINEER

The main role of the Railway Engineer will be to assist the Vice-President Engineering in the management of special projects, maintenance programs and capital projects for Track, Structures and Signal & Communications. The selected candidate will need to have a strong knowledge of the railway policies, regulations and management practices associated to the operations of our railways in the Canadian region.

Company: Genesee & Wyoming Canada Inc.

Location: 9001, boul. de l'Acadie, Bureau 600, Montreal (Quebec) H4N 3H5

Salary: Salary is based on experience and G&W's wage scale.

Responsibilities

- All responsibilities extent to all GWCI Operating Railways presently: QGRY, HCRY, SLQ, SLR, CBNS, OVR, GEXR, SOR, KLTR and RC;
- Responsible to manage some of the Engineering Maintenance and Capital Budgets for Track, Structures and Signals & Communications, including special engineering projects assigned by the Vice-President Engineering
- Responsible for directing maintenance and engineering activities through subordinate groups and General Managers;
- Act as the Responsible Engineer with regards to all Railway Structures Management Programs;
- Engineering activities include research and development, engineering design review in the areas of track, structures and signals & communications including major engineering projects;
- Prepare and review project notice, construction contract and master agreement associated to particular engineering projects;
- Plan, organize, assign, administer, direct, review, and evaluate departmental programs and activities related to the improvement of track, structures and signals & communications;
- Direct, coordinate and review the work plan for assigned maintenance services and activities;; monitor work flow; review and evaluate work products, methods and procedures;
- Represent the Engineering team to other departments, elected officials and outside agencies; coordinate assigned activities with those of other departments and outside agencies and organizations;
- Oversee and participate in the development and administration of the departmental budget.

Qualifications

- Bachelor degree in Engineering;
- Registered Professional Engineer in a least one of the Operating Provinces in Canada;
- At least 10 years of track engineering experience in the Railway industry;
- Railway Technical: CROR, SPCs, Collective Agreements, Mentoring/Leadership, Track Design, Bridge Design, Rating, Inspection and S&C Design and Installation;
- Able to travel within Canada and the USA;
- Have a valid Driver's License;
- Position requires impeccable communication skills (both written and oral in French and English) and the ability to deal effectively with all levels of management.

Other working conditions: Vacation, benefits and paid holidays are based on the company's policies.

If considered for the position, a full background check will be required (physical, drug, criminal and references)

Send application to the Human Resources of GWCI at: E-mail: canada\_recruitment@gwrr.com or Fax: (514) 948-6988

Thank you !